Author Joseph Rotenberg whose book, Timeless Travels was named by Huff Post as a "Must Read" will be speaking and autographing books at the Teaneck Library on Tuesday, April 24, 2018 at 7:00 PM. The book, which is a rich collection of short stories based on the American/Jewish experience has garnered critical praise from newspapers, radio and TV critics nationwide and is loosely based on Mr. Rotenberg's experience growing up in New York and having traveled extensively in Israel and Europe. So if you enjoy short stories that take you on a journey back in time or to exotic places, come to the Teaneck Library for an enjoyable cup of Joe and for a memorable evening you won't soon forget.

What is addiction? How can we prevent it? What can we do to help those who struggle with this disease? Members of the Teaneck and Bergenfield communities, along with Amudim, invite you to join us for an evening of awareness and education about the growing epidemic of substance abuse and addiction within our community. This important event will be held on Sunday, April 22nd, 8 p.m. at Torah Academy of Bergen County, Teaneck, NJ, and is free of charge. Our goal is to increase public awareness and understanding, reduce the stigma associated with addiction, and encourage our community to focus on the issue and learn how to detect and prevent substance abuse. Speakers will include Rabbi Zvi Gluck, Director of Amudim, Rabbi Larry Rothwachs, Director of Professional Rabbis at RIETS/Rabbi of Congregation Beth Aaron, Avi Shteingart, LCSW/CASAC, as well as a recovering addict and a local parent. Please join us.

Life's challenges can often leave us feeling lost. Whether one is new to a community or a long time resident, loneliness, stress and depression can be the natural result of our over-scheduled lives. Jewish Family and Children's Services is available to help you come to terms with some of these issues, and to develop coping strategies. Whether someone is experiencing financial stress, marital discord or other relationship challenges, help is available. We are also available to consult with and for children who may be going through life stresses of their own. All calls are confidential and are handled with sensitivity to personal values and differing cultures. Please feel free to contact Paula Rozner at 201-978-2529; paular@jfcsnj.org. The agency link is www.jfcsnj.org.
