Shabbos Announcements

Yeshivat Noam will be running this Shabbos an afternoon program at our Shul from 4:00-5:15pm for 3 and 4 year olds and their parents. The program will include songs, special games, a story, fun, AND refreshments.

We are pleased to announce that an updated BMOB membership photo directory is in the works. The membership photo directory committee is hard at work. We need your help gathering all of our information. Please click on the link below and fill out the family information form. PLEASE ONLY FILL OUT ONE FORM PER FAMILY!!

<http://bit.ly/2PFGZBL>

In order for this project to come into fruition we need volunteers to join me on the committee. The committee will help gather each family's information and help run the photography sessions on the determined dates. If we do not have enough volunteers we will not be able to proceed with the directory. If you would like to join the committee please email me at sarit.glass@gmail.com

There is now a Taekwondo class located at BMOB on Sunday mornings and Thursday evenings. Other classes are available upon request as well. Shul members are given a monthly discount on the classes. Call Mickey Marinelli for more information 845-499-6603

Life's challenges can often leave us feeling lost. Whether one is new to a community or a long time resident, loneliness, stress and depression can be the natural result of our over-scheduled lives. Jewish Family and Children's Services is available to help you come to terms with some of these issues, and to develop coping strategies. Whether someone is experiencing financial stress, marital discord or other relationship challenges, help is available. We are also available to consult with and for children who may be going through life stresses of their own. All calls are confidential and are handled with sensitivity to personal values and differing cultures. Please feel free to contact Paula Rozner at 201-978-2529; paular@jfcsmnj.org. The agency link is www.jfcsmnj.org.
